

GameSpy Shuts Down Gaming Fan Sites

20/08/2009 16:16 by Manstein

Gamespy shut down its public hosting of fansites as of August 31st, 2009, which included one that was dear to our hearts, the long-standing A&A strategy reference; The Spotters Guide. But don't fret, The Spotters Guide has a new home at <http://axisallies.chimaerica.com/>.

The future of StrategyPlanet itself seems somewhat in question, as no news stories have been posted there in three months; although IGN/Gamespy is in the midst of a data center transfer so who knows what the future will bring. For us personally, as long as Gamespy continues to support A&A RTS, we're happy...
